6pack battery

Anyone out there have the Dupont T5 transmission? If so how do you like it and did you have him install? Thinking about breaking the bank and having it done. Hate not ...

Over the years I have accumulated several carbs. I cannot remember where I got them or which car they came from, some I bought on the spur of the moment without much of ...

I've seen in several posts where Miata MX5 seats were installed in their TR6.....and they looked great. Are there any other seats that have been used successfully?

I've been working on this project for quite some time now, but have hesitated to post anything about it. Several people on the forum know about it from me blabbering about it ...
