

---

Communications Bureau 5g base station transformation

Inspections Article 20 of Regulation 1/2003 empowers the Commission to conduct inspections or "dawn raids" on the premises of companies suspected of being in breach of EU Competition ...

On 23 April 2024, the European Commission carried out unannounced inspections, known as "dawn raids", on the premises of a Chinese-owned security equipment company using its ...

A Chinese business association has urged the European Commission (EC) to enforce its Foreign Subsidies Regulation (FSR) policy with prudence and immediately cease ...

The European Commission, in tandem with national competition authorities, conducted its first dawn raids under the FSR at the Polish and Dutch offices of Nuctech, a Chinese company ...

An order of the European Court refusing to grant interim relief to Nuctech, a Chinese maker of security scanners, has highlighted the European Commission's (the Commission) extensive ...

European Union officials have raided the offices of Chinese security equipment maker Nuctech as part of a probe into subsidies, exposing rising tensions between the bloc and one of its biggest ...

The European Commission has launched four investigations against Chinese companies since its July 2023 foreign subsidies regulation allowed it to assess whether subsidies allowed ...

Web: <https://stanfashion.pl>

