Introducing D2D communication into cellular networks can reduce the burden on base stations introductoryAs a noun introduction is the act or process of introducing. As an adjective introductory is introducing; giving a preview or idea of.

I''m Rachel is what you use when introducing yourself. "Hi. I''m Rachael" This is Rachel and It''s Rachel are what you say on the phone when you call someone. The other ...

Introducing means someone is currently presenting themselves or a topic or was presenting themselves or a topic. "She is currently introducing herself." "I heard him introducing himself." ...

addIncorporate has the meaning of including. While add has the meaning of joining. ex...Please incorporate the new hire in group activities. The addition of new hire has ...

@teresatokki means Can I get to know you? It can be friends or more than just friends but explicitly say this without giving out the signals. ...

even though"Even though I love ice cream, I wouldn't eat it for every meal." "I love ice cream, but even so, I wouldn't eat it for every meal."|@Yaia81 Yes. When you say "even ...

tel@al_dodo I think tel/tel que in both of the two places mean "like, such as" (introducing examples), right? Yes !! Notice the construction : noun, tel (que) + noun Why do ...

Web: https://stanfashion.pl