Is it better to use 24V or 48V inverter

It's better to finish your homework prior going to play basketball. It would be better finish your homework prior going to play basketball. are they both correct? If so, what's the ...

I see "you better do something" as a short spoken form of "you had better do something". "Had" better is an idiom meaning "you should do" and "it would be better if you did".

Whether you use "the less the better", "the fewer the better" or "the smaller the better" depends on what adjective fits for the noun that you are talking about.

"Better" in "You better do it now" is replacing "had better" in "You had better do it now". It thus is an adjective turned into a verb, just as much as "shovel" (originally used only ...)

"The better" is a superlative that only applies when comparing two people or things. "The best" is not wrong when comparing just two, but "the better" makes clear that the ...

You can certainly say that, effect3. "Better" can be used as a verb to replace "improve" with the same meaning. But I don't think you have improved the clarity of the ...

As for the choice between "a better option" and "the better option", the first point is that this only arises when two options are being considered. Secondly, the question which ...
