

---

The bigger the sunlight the smaller the voltage of solar panels

bigger than the whole skySalt streams out my eyes and into my ears, Every single thing I touch becomes sick with sadness ...

Greater, higher, and larger are common choices to describe proportions and amounts; bigger does not sound idiomatic - I'm not sure why. proportion of

Not bigger than = negative of bigger than (would be used if there had already been a suggestion that one thing was bigger than another) They mean the same in practical terms, ...

Hello I am in need of help about the adjectives which are usually used with, a number, a rate and a percentage, I have concluded that A number can be higher/lower, ...

Their house is about three times as big as ours. Do you use "comparative" (bigger than) in this type of sentences?

Children do sometimes use the comparatives "bigger" or "littler": when I was at infant school (aged five) I remember we used to talk about the "bigger children", who were ...

Twice bigger is not used by native English speakers, as far as I know. It makes little sense to me. Twice as big clearly means double the size, so that one's fine.

Web: <https://stanfashion.pl>

